OPENING NIGHT! Tuesday May 16th, 6:00pm

 TUESDAY, MAY 16th, 2023. 6:00 pm - 10:00 pm ($20)

Canal Street Film Center ~ 924 Canal Street, Philadelphia, PA 19123

May 16th, 2023 Philly Comedy Meets The World!! Join us to kick off the festival with a night of laughter and discussion on the election!

6:00 pm - 6:55 pm

1. Laws of Motion (Comedy, Drama, Dramedy) (Director - Patrick Kendall. Cast: William Thomas, Pete Mizzo, Sean Lynch, Ron Barba, Mike DiAlto, Jose Vega, Idil Bray. NY, NY) 23:58 min. Three Friends help a Divorcee pack up his life and abandon his family home during the events of Covid-19 in Philadelphia. Each is affected by the pandemic differently. As they pack the boxes, they unpack their stories & reopen old wounds, setting in motion a collision course between the immovable past and the uncertainty of the unstoppable future.
2. Spoons (Comedy) (Director - Shayna Davis. Cast: Fadillah Abdur-Rahim, Megan LuRose, Adam Howard. Philadelphia, PA) 2:38 min. How many spoons... are too many spoons?

- KEEPERS OF THE WAY (Documentary) (Director - Evan Cohen. Cast: Ken Macaulay, Chuck Gentlemoon DeMund. Philadelphia, PA) 21:30 min. In this intimate portrait told through the eyes of Lenape tribal leaders in Pennsylvania, a challenging spiritual journey unfolds to heal past wounds and keep a culture alive. Over the course of a weekend, Lenape tribe members perform healing ceremonies for the land affected by the Walking Purchase—a notorious event that changed the course of the tribe's future—and reveal the dark underbelly left out of history books. The struggles, joy, pain, and resilient spirit of the Lenape all bubble to the surface as the tribe members share stories passed down through the generations and reveal their visions for the future of life on Earth. The Lenape are here to tell the world that not only are they still here—they never left.
- THE SUN RISES IN THE EAST (Documentary) (Director/Writer/Producer ~ Tayo Giwa/Cynthia Gordy Giwa) 58:00 min. The Sun Rises in The East chronicles the birth, rise and legacy of The East, a pan-African cultural organization founded in 1969 by teens and young adults in Bedford-Stuyvesant, Brooklyn. Led by educator and activist Jitu Weusi, The East embodied Black self-determination, building more than a dozen institutions, including its own African-centered school, food co-op, newsmagazine, publisher, record label, restaurant, clothing shop and bookstore. The organization hosted world-famous jazz musicians and poets at its highly sought-after performance venue, and it served as an epicenter for political contemporaries such as the Black Panther Party, the Young Lords and the Congress of Afrikan People, as well as comrades across Africa and the Caribbean. In effect, The East built an independent Black nation in the heart of Central Brooklyn.

- Even Hell Has Its Heroes (Music Documentary, North West History) (Director - Clyde Peterson. Seattle, Washington USA) (East Coast Premier) 110 min. Since 1989, the slowest metal band on the planet has conjured some of music's most striking tectonic changes. Not only did the band Earth create a glacially paced subgenre of metal and play a pivotal role in the popularization of grunge, but visionary leader Dylan Carlson also did it while battling small-town boredom, heroin addiction, and the tragic death of his roommate and best friend, Kurt Cobain. Despite the high volume of its beloved and beautiful drone metal, Earth has rarely had much to say for itself. For the first time, in a moving saga that respects the music as much as the ragtag cast of eccentrics and surreal Pacific Northwest majesty that shaped it, Clyde Petersen gets to the core of the could-have-been-tragic triumph of Earth, the slow band that changed everything it touched.
 - Solidarity (Director - Mark L. Mazzeo. Philadelphia, PA USA) (Philly Premier) 5:48 min. When Reilly and Darwin hear about budget cuts at the office, they agree to act in solidarity to save their jobs.
